Agents yarded close to 7500 head, with 1230 of new season Sucker lambs offered in Swan Hill this week. The increased supply did not dampen demand with the average price for young lambs reaching $220/head topping at $286/head. Heavy Export quotations increased $20-$30/head when compared to a fortnight ago, selling out to $320/head for a pen of 30 Cross Breads out of Mellool. Mutton gained by an average of $23/head across the board. Light Lambs headed back to the paddock made to $170/head in a market well attended by our regular spirited buying group as well as two Supermarket giants.
