Did You Know?

What makes an NVD invalid?

An NVD is invalid when:

- Handwriting on the NVD can't be read
 - All questions are not completed
 - There is no signature/s
- Both 'yes' and 'no' are ticked, instead of one or the other
- The form has been photocopied or a sample has been used
 - White-out has been used to correct a mistake
 - One NVD has been used for multiple consignments.

For more practical tips on filling in NVDs so they are clear, correct and complete, offer your clients the following resources:
