Council Highlights

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE MAYOR!

Congratulations to Cr Stuart King on his re-election as Mayor for a third consecutive term! We look forward to his continued leadership, dedication, and vision in guiding our community, supporting local initiatives, and championing projects that enhance the liveability and vibrancy of our region. We also extend our warmest congratulations to Cr Terry Jennings, who has been elected Deputy Mayor for the first time. We look forward to the energy and fresh perspective he will bring to the role.

Murray Little Christmas

Are you dreaming of a Murray Little Christmas? Council and Swan Hill Incorporated have teamed up to create a festive guide to all the Christmas events in the region for 2025 - bringing the community together for a season of joy and celebration!

Art Gallery Opening - this Friday 28th!

The wait is over! Swan Hill Rural City Council and the Art Gallery of Swan Hill are thrilled to throw open the doors of the brand-new Gallery tonight at 6pm for the launch of its first exhibition, A Place to Gather. Featuring standout works from the Gallery's own collection alongside remarkable pieces on loan, this exhibition marks a major cultural moment for our region. Join us this evening for a free community celebration as we unveil this stunning new space - Gallery Director Ian Tully, Mayor Cr Stuart King, and our whole team can't wait to welcome you!

16 DAYS OF ACTIVISM. A VIOLENCE-FREE VICTORIA. IT ALL STARTS WITH RESPECT.

The 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence campaign (25 November–10 December) promotes the message that building safer communities starts with respect, and this year's theme encourages everyone to reflect on what "Respect Is..." in their daily lives. Council was proud to support the campaign and joined community members on 25 November for the Walk Against Family Violence, demonstrating our commitment to raising awareness, preventing violence, and fostering a culture of equality and safety for all.
